The thoughtfully designed Crestway floor plan encompasses 5 bedrooms, and 4 bathrooms spread over 3,639 square feet. Meticulous design and sensible architecture are key factors in achieving this home's warmth and its room-to-room flow with wonderful attention to detail.

On the main floor, you're greeted in the foyer with views of the spacious floor plan and the stunning curved staircase with stylish detailing and polished finesse. Nearby you'll find the elegant dining room, with its distinctive coffered ceiling. The dining room gives direct access to the spacious kitchen through the large and convenient butler's pantry. The pantry is perfect for storing food, small kitchen appliances, and assorted cooking ware to keep everything tidy and organized.

The centerpiece of kitchen is the beautiful generously sized slab island which can be used as additional work space for culinary craftsmanship or as a table for casual dining. The kitchen has also been outfitted with professional style appliances to assist in your cooking creations. The large eating nook space offers an additional option for meals or take the entertainment outside to the covered large patio.

The impressive 2 story great room features large windows, a natural-gas fireplace and a seating area that is sure to impress guests. The main level also offers a 3-car parking garage with abundant space. From the garage entry, a thoughtful mud room can be found, featuring a custom-built mud bench with lower cubbies to store boots, shoes, and other footwear. Adjacent to the mud room you'll find the main level bathroom and the guest bedroom.

On the second level, 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a bonus room, and a convenient laundry room can be found. The elegant and expansive master suite features a vaulted ceiling and large windows to give this room vibrancy thanks to its efficient
