The Fairfield home plan offers 6 bedrooms and 5.5 bathrooms spread over 4,694 square feet and 3 stories of spacious, luxurious living.

Meticulous design and sensible architecture are key factors in achieving this home's warmth and its seamless flow with wonderful attention to detail and a generous number of windows to keep its interiors bright all year round.

The main level features an open gourmet kitchen with a generously sized island. Steps away from the kitchen you'll find the convenient eating nook and great room, both of which are ideally situated for family and friends to enjoy a captivating evening at home. Directly accessible from the great room is not only the elegant dining room but also the spacious and covered outdoor patio. Off of the kitchen, you'll also enjoy the pantry, which offers an abundant amount of storage, perfect for storing food, kitchen appliances, and assorted cooking ware to keep everything tidy, organized, and within reach.

Additionally, on this level, you'll find the flex space area that can be utilized as the home's private den or as a main level guest bedroom with an adjacent bathroom.

The second level features the master suite with an amazing vaulted ceiling as well as an extremely spacious walk-in closet. Though your most enjoyable feature might be the spa-inspired master bathroom, featuring a free-standing soaking tub and a separate shower with a bench.

On the second level of the home, you'll find 3 additional bedrooms, all of which feature their own walk-in closets as well as private bathrooms. The large laundry room can be found on this level.
